In-Person HPSS Course Infectious Illness Assumption of Risk

Participation in an in-person HPSS course includes potential health risks. While every effort will be made to minimize risks to students, staff, and faculty, the elimination of all such risks is beyond the control of the Department of Human Performance and Sport Studies, or university.

I freely and voluntarily accept those risks to complete my course. Before beginning this course, please read, initial, and sign the following:

Initials

- _____ 1. I will not participate in HPSS courses if I exhibit any signs/symptoms of infection, including but not limited to: fever, cough, shortness of breath, body aches, sore throat, loss of smell, or nausea/vomiting/diarrhea.
- _____ 2. I will wear a facial covering in all enclosed public spaces and when distancing is more difficult or impossible.
- _____ 3. I recognize the dangers to myself and others of acquiring infectious diseases during HPSS courses, including the possibility of health-related consequences of such diseases.
- _____ 4. I have the right to feel safe during HPSS courses; I have the ability to talk to my instructor regarding any concerns I may have related to breaches in infection control measures or public health recommendations in any class.
- _____ 5. If I test positive for COVID-19, I will notify the university as per the COVID-19 Self-reporting Form available on the ISU COVID-19 website.
