

College of Health

First Annual Retreat

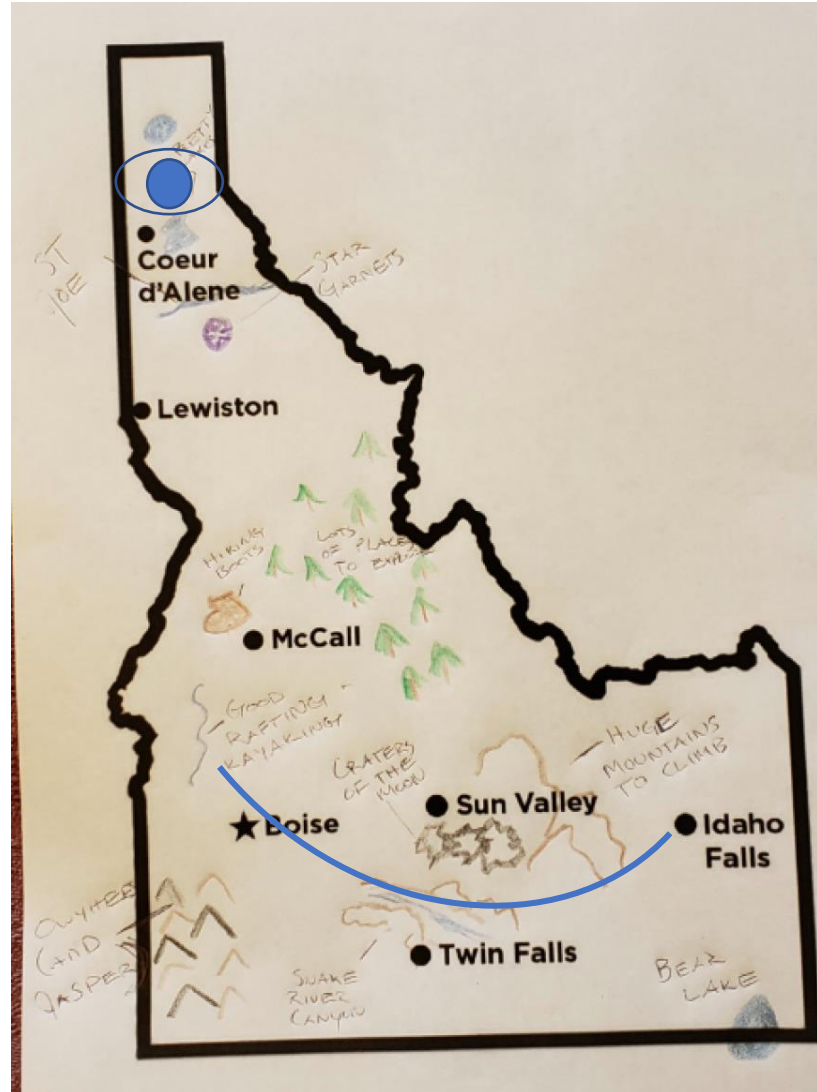

April 29, 2022

Dean Teresa Conner, PT, PhD, MBA

State of the College Report

- Strong
  - Committed & Talented Faculty, Staff and Students
- Impactful
  - 1/3 of ISU students (~3600)
  - 12 departments
  - 41 programs
  - → 10 clinics

Our programs put the smile in Idaho

National, Regional and University Recognitions

- Dr. Barbara Kornblau selected by HHS Secretary Becerra to serve on the National Advisory Committee on Individuals with Disabilities and Disasters
- Dr. Dani Moffit was inducted into the Northwest Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame for her untiring efforts in service to the Athletic Training profession, educational organization, and diversity, equity and inclusion in health care. She is the first woman in Idaho to receive this honor.
- 2 Faculty members selected for 2 of the 3 university faculty awards:
  - Dr. Nancy Devine-Distinguished Teacher Award
  - Mr. Dave Martin-Distinguished Service Award
- 4 finalists (Drs. Rogo, Nies, Lindsay and Moffit)

Our People

- 8 faculty receiving clinical promotion or promotion and/or tenure
- Professional fees approved to support college infrastructure and programs
- Addition of AT to our family
- OT to become separate dept.; expand to Meridian and planning transition to OTD
- Community service:
  - $137,458 in free care provided to 2986 community members by Dental Hygiene
  - SON students provided 11,000 hours of service to support health
  - Hundreds of hours of community and health services by MLS
  - 875 community service hours provided by PA students

Grants in Support of Our Students' Education

- $2.1 million from US Dept. of Ed to train health care interpreters
- $1.4 million HRSA Grit grant to support training of rural health PA's
- $10 million planned
- gift to support PA education
- 2nd year of $1 million Clinical Rehab. Counseling Student Training Grant

Our Programs

- Graduated first cohort of DPT students from Meridian location
- Undergraduate Community and Public Health student completed practicum at the Shosone-Bannock tribe and selected for Peace Corps
- Student Capstone research accepted for publication in the journal of Nutrition and Health
- MOT program expanded to Meridian (32 students accepted); 2 faculty/2 student groups at national conference
- Authorization to expand audiology clinical services
- MSAT/DPT student serving as national chair for Student Leadership Committee; MSAT student won research award
- EMS students 100% pass rate
- Graduating Rad Sciences students 100% employment

Other recognitions

- Dept./Program showcase