We are now accepting applications for 2026 Honors Peer Mentors!

New Honors Peer Mentors are required to carry out the following:

- Register for the Spring 2026 section of HONS 3392-02: Honors Peer Mentorship Seminar (2 Honors credits). Note: This class is designed to be meaningful, not menial. The majority of your grade is determined by showing up and participating in discussion.
- Provide a cumulative total of 40 hours of mentoring (about an hour a week)—from March 30, 2026 to December 15, 2026
- Attend the 2026 Honors Student Induction Ceremony and "Welcome Back" Events in August
- Attend monthly meetings from May 2026 to October 2026 (Over the summer these are held via Zoom)

Deadline to Apply: 11:59 p.m. MST on October 10, 2025

Email questions or concerns to Kathryn Holt (kathrynholt@isu.edu)

Applicants who are selected as UHP Peer Mentors will be informed no later than the week of October 28 in order to have time to register for HONS 3392-02: Honors Peer Mentorship.

NCHC Student Affairs Committee (SAC) – Join Now

The NCHC Student Affairs Committee (SAC) is a student-led group that helps shape student programming at the annual NCHC conference. From hosting events like Networking Bingo and the Student Party to leading initiatives such as the Purpose Project, SAC members play a key role in creating meaningful connections and experiences for honors students nationwide.

SAC members also serve as liaisons between NCHC and their home institutions, bringing back new ideas and opportunities to strengthen local honors communities. It's a great way for students to:

- Gain leadership experience
- Build professional networks
- Contribute to the national honors community

If you'd like to join the NCHC SAC, fill out the form at:
